

MoJazz from Motown

Wynton Marsalis

Motown Records, a leading rhythm & blues and pop label for three decades, announced it will make its entry into jazz by starting a MoJazz label.

"We're merely answering the call to acknowledge this great American art form," said Motown President Jheryl Busby.

The label's first signings include Norman Connors, Wynton Marsalis, pianist

Eric Reed and guitarist Norman Brown.